TALK IT OVER

TEACHING OBJECTIVE: JUST LIKE MOSES, I CAN BE BRAVE WHEN I FEEL FEARFUL.

- Through faith, Moses modeled facing your fears and being brave for God.
- God took the people through their biggest hurdle when they crossed the Red Sea.
- Having courage means being brave even when we are feeling fearful.

QUESTIONS

1. The Israelites are so fearful, they plead to go back to the wilderness; at least it was a known entity in the face of the unknown. Have you ever experienced this?
2. What are some of your fears that God is asking you to face now?
3. What does it mean to be truly brave?
4. Think about someone you personally know who has shown extraordinary courage.
